Mayor Vetoes Ordinance Abolishing His Cabinet

Special to The News-Times: MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., July 7.—Mayor Fred C. Miller of Michigan City is having his trouble. Recently the anti-Miller majority in the city council abolished the mayor's cabinet. His board of public works, Thursday the mayor vetoed the ordinance abolishing his cabinet. The board of public works meeting and functioning, the anti-Miller forces in the council will now seek to override the mayor's veto and the fight promises to end in the courts. Michigan City recently voted to adopt the commission-manager form of government, defeating Mayor Miller's aspirations to make a third race for the mayoralty. His friends now say that he will seek the election of a board of trustees which will name him the city manager.

"Earmarks" of Crook Lands O'Brien Into Net of Cops

Special to The News-Times: ELKHART, Ind., July 7.—When a shifty eyed roughly dressed man presented a check at the First National bank here Thursday which had the earmarks of having been raised from $8.05 to $80.05, F. E. Beeton, cashier, asked the man to wait a minute and then pushed a secret police alarm button which brought a squad of bluecoats, equipped with army rifles, to the bank just as the stranger, who had become suspicious, dashed out. The man ran down an alley but was captured. He gave the name of John O'Brien.

BECKMAN FREE; TO SUE HIS CAPTOR?

Charges of malicious prosecution and false imprisonment will be filed against Patrolman Emmett Baxter and a petition will be presented to the board of public safety Thursday or Friday asking for the removal of Baxter from the police department according to a statement made by one of Beckman's attorneys, former Judge Gilmer, Thursday.

Those developments are the result of an alleged beating Baxter is said to have given Beckman Sunday night at Lincoln way E. and Bronson st.

Charges against Beckman of driving a car while drunk were heard in city court on Wednesday and a motion by counsel for Beckman for a directed verdict was sustained by Judge Omacht, finding Beckman not guilty.

A civil suit for damages sustained by his automobile will also be brought against the Chicago, South Bend and Northern Indiana Railway Co. by Beckman, according to his counsel.
